MEMORANDUM

DATE: JUNE 4, 2001

TO: ALL DEPARTMENT HEADS

FROM: MILDRILYN STEPHENS DAVIS, DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF HOUSING msd

SUBJECT: SEVENTH ANNUAL HOMEOWNERSHIP FAIR, SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 2001

On Saturday, June 23, the City of Alexandria will sponsor its Seventh Annual Homeownership Fair to offer members of our community information on how they can purchase their own home. The event will take place at T.C. Williams High School, 3330 King Street, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

We are requesting your help in encouraging potential homebuyers among your employees to attend this event. Nearly 60% of Alexandria households are renters, and the City strongly desires to encourage as many of them as possible to become homeowners. Please distribute the enclosed information telling about this important opportunity to your employees, and post a copy on your office bulletin board.

Lenders and real estate professionals will be at the Fair to meet directly with potential homebuyers on affordable housing options. Representatives from the City's homeownership counseling agency, Housing Counseling Services, will be available to pre-screen interested persons for the City's homeownership programs and schedule them for a pre-purchase orientation workshop. The Fair will also feature seminars on the homebuying process, financing (including housing assistance programs), and credit issues.

Fair attendees can apply for on-the-spot mortgage pre-qualifications and receive a response the same day. Listings of affordable homes currently on the market will be available from local real estate professionals. Free parking for participants is available in the school parking lots, and overflow parking will be available at additional locations (see attached map).

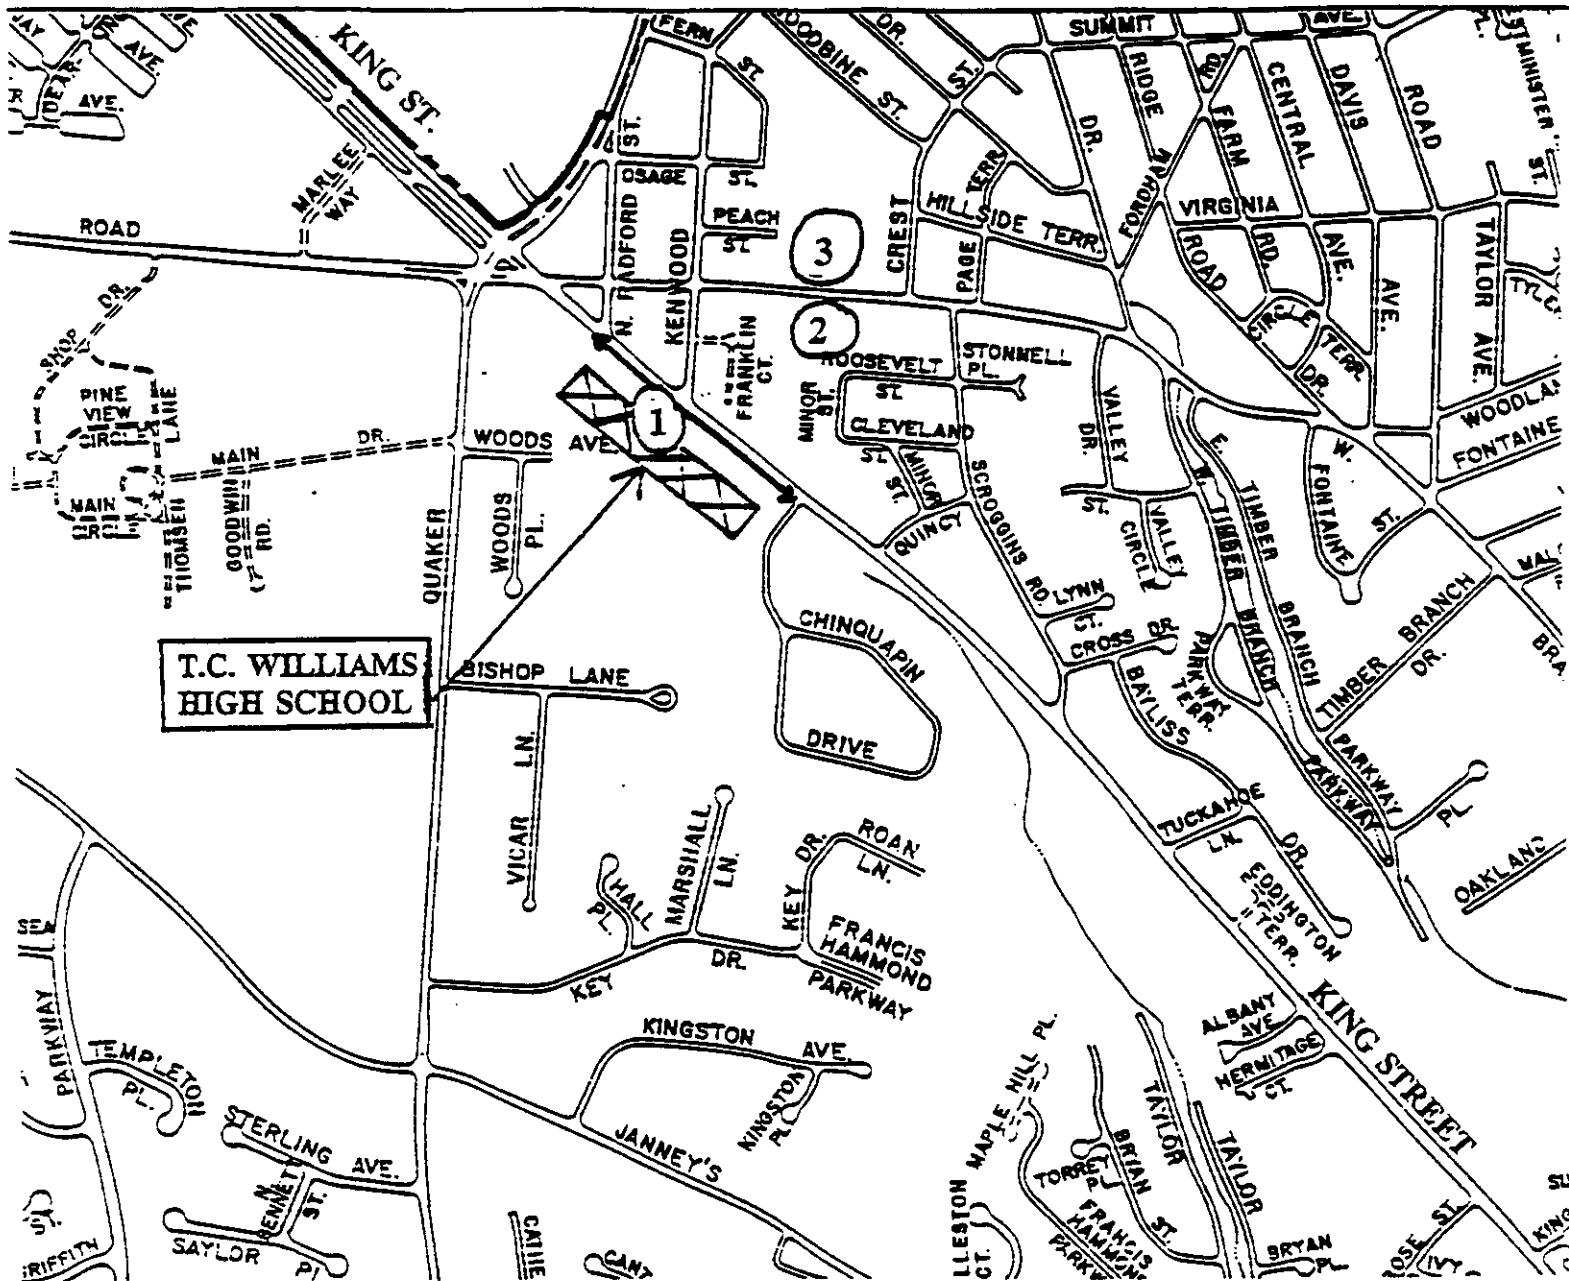

We hope you will encourage your employees to take advantage of the wealth of information that will be available at the City's Homeownership Fair. Thank you for your assistance.
